"A NEW CHAPTER" BY PASTOR YEMISI BAMGBOSE

John 20:1-20

A new chapter is synonymous with a new beginning.

A new chapter closes the doors to the previous chapter and opens up a brand-new beginning.

After the death of Jesus, the devil thought he had won the battle, but unknown to him, he had just lost the war. Jesus arose on the third day in power and glory!

He arose to die no more.

He tasted death for all mankind and opened up the life gate that all who believe in Him may go in.

He opened a new chapter of dominion and authority.

A new way of living and dwelling.

We are no longer slaves to sin; we are now children of God.

He closed the last chapter with His death and by His blood.

He won the victory on our behalf that we may live in newness of life.

Romans 6:4 - "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

Through His death and resurrection, a new chapter is opened to everyone that believes in Him and has accepted the sacrificial substitutes.

We can now be called sons of God.

Romans 8:14

We now have an inheritance in the saints.

We are now heirs of salvation and joint heirs with Christ.

Romans 8:17

We now have an inheritance in God.

We have been given authority over the devil and all his demons.

We are now a new creature, and no more in condemnation - 2 Corinthians 5:17

We have a new identity in Christ, and we have the hope of eternal life.

The day a man surrenders his life to Jesus, Jesus closes the doors to his old chapter and opens the doors to a new chapter full of great possibilities.

In Christ Jesus, we have many possibilities that are beyond human understanding.

A business that is surrendered to Jesus Christ can experience a new chapter, because the old order has given way to a new order.

Any marriage surrendered to Jesus can experience a new chapter, as the couple will now follow the master's dictate.

Any nation that acknowledges Jesus will experience a new chapter as the old, broken walls of defence will be replaced by an invisible fortified wall of defence.

Every unpleasant situation will surely surrender to a newness of pleasant occurrences.

God introduced chapters and seasons to life, so that there can be breaks from prolonged negative circumstances.

Genesis 1:14

Chapters are needed to end unfavourable conditions and open up new possibilities.

Chapters make life interesting and confirm that no condition is permanent in life when God is involved.

Chapters introduce growth and opportunities.

For example, Abraham started his life as a rich, childless man, but at the right season of life, God introduced a new chapter into his life, and that introduction brought about his laughter in Isaac.

Genesis 12 to 22

That chapter put a permanent end to barrenness and fruitless labour in his life. The same is still a possibility today to everyone who surrenders their all to Jesus, and they will also experience a positive and drastic change.

1 Samuel 17-30

David started his life journey as a shepherd boy. But, unknown to him, he was being trained for the day he will confront Goliath of Gath in battle.

His killing of Goliath brought him into a new chapter which later introduced him to the throne as the King of Israel.

David's life was full of many chapters.

He became a fugitive, and a captain of men who were considered worthless, debtors, hopeless and helpless, but David made these men giant slayers and valiant men in battle.

Even though the first chapter we read about David was an unfavourable one according to human judgment, but God used that chapter to train him for a far greater assignment ahead of him.

Another example is Joseph, who again experienced many life chapters.

Genesis 37- 45

He started his life journey as the favourite of his father, and that earned him many enemies. As a result, he was sold into slavery, then into Potiphar's house as the head slave, where he was lied against thus landing him in prison. But, the day of remembrance came, and he became the second-in-command of Egypt.

Chapters are like commas or apostrophes introduced to give us a break from the current pattern. A new chapter gives us the time and opportunity to do things differently.

Esther 1-9

Esther also experienced different chapters in her life.

Her life began as an orphan, living with her cousin. But a new chapter was introduced that made her the queen of the land.

Acts 9:1-end

Paul started the chapter of his life as an enemy of God, persecuting the church of Christ, until he met Jesus on his murderous journey to Damascus. This is where a new chapter of witnessing for Jesus began for him after his close encounter with Jesus Christ.

By the special grace of God, our life as a church is filled with many testimonies of God's faithfulness and grace. We have gone through many chapters of life, and we have seen God replacing the old with the new.

We can no longer remain on this current chapter, as we have outgrown it, just as the sons of prophets said to Elisha - we too need an expansion.

2 Kings 6:1-4

All hands must be on deck as we pursue God's agenda like never before.

We have to intensify our efforts in evangelism and soul winning.

We must understand that time wasted can never be regained back.

We must know also that all of us must work hard in this new chapter.

The way we do things must change in this new chapter.

2 Kings 5:1-15

Elisha said to Naaman to go and dip himself in the Jordan River seven times and his skin will return back to him like a little baby, but Naaman under the old chapter was expecting the prophet to come and wave his hands over him to heal him. Naaman did not understand the doings of the Lord.

He almost lost his miracle because of pride.

God has graciously given us a new chapter, and we have the opportunity to do things differently as this new chapter has ended all the unpleasant chapters of life.

Brethren, we cannot continue to do business like before and expect a different outcome, it is time to move.

A child of twenty years has grown and matured to know her right from wrong.

It is time to do the growing up and do things maturely.

Remember, resurrection speaks of the new life, a new day, and the new seasons of life. We are now in the season of spring, and we shall spring forward and higher into greater heights, and experience a new life and vitality, in Jesus name.

LOL PRAYER

An elderly gentleman passed his granddaughter's room one night and overheard her repeating the alphabet in an oddly reverent way. "What on earth are you up to?" he asked. "I'm saying my prayers," explained the little girl. "But I can't think of exactly the right words tonight, so I'm just saying all the letters. God will put them together for me, because He knows what I'm thinking."

THE HAND OF GOD

Little Philip was spending the weekend with his grandmother after a particularly trying week in infant school. His grandmother decided to take him to the park on Saturday morning. It had been snowing all night and everything was beautiful. His grandmother commented, 'Doesn't it look like an artist painted this scenery? Did you know God painted this just for you?' 'Yes,' replied Philip, 'God did it and he did it left handed.' This confused his grandmother so she asked him, 'What makes you say God did this with his left hand?' 'Well,' said Philip, 'we learned at Sunday School last week that Jesus sits on God's right hand.'

HYMNS FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL

HYMN 1

THERE IS A NAME I LOVE TO HEAR

There is a name I love to hear,
I love to sing its worth;
It sounds like music in mine ear,
The sweetest name on earth.

Chorus

*Oh, how I love Jesus,
Oh, how I love Jesus,
Oh, how I love Jesus,
Because He first loved me!*

It tells me of a Saviour's love,
Who died to set me free;
It tells me of His precious blood,
The sinner's perfect plea.

It bids my trembling soul rejoice,
And dries each rising tear;
It tells me in a "still small voice"
To trust and never fear.

Jesus, the name I love so well,
The name I love to hear,
No saint on earth its worth can tell,
No heart conceive how dear.

This name shall shed its fragrance still
Along this thorny road,
Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill
That leads me up to God.

And there, with all the blood-brought throng,
From sin and sorrow free,
I'll sing the new eternal song
Of Jesus' love to me.

HYMN 2

THERE'S NOT A FRIEND LIKE THE LOWLY JESUS

There's not a friend like the lowly Jesus,
No, not one! no, not one!
None else could heal all our soul's diseases,
No, not one! no, not one!

Chorus:

*Jesus knows all about our struggles,
He will guide till the day is done;
There's not a friend like the lowly Jesus,
No, not one! no, not one!*

No friend like Him is so high and holy,
No, not one! no, not one!
And yet no friend is so meek and lowly,
No, not one! no, not one!

There's not an hour that He is not near us,
No, not one! no, not one!
No night so dark but His love can cheer us,
No, not one! no, not one!

Did ever saint find this Friend forsake him?
No, not one! no, not one!
Or sinner find that He would not take him?
No, not one! no, not one!

Was e'er a gift like the Saviour given?
No, not one! no, not one!
Will He refuse us a home in heaven?
No, not one! no, not one!

HYMN 3ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA!
ALLELUIA!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The strife is o'er, the battle done;
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun,
Alleluia!

The powers of death have done their worst
But Christ their legions hath dispersed,
Let shouts of holy joy outburst.
Alleluia.

The three sad days have quickly sped,
He rises glorious from the dead,
All glory to our risen Head,
Alleluia!

He brake the age bound chains of hell,
The bars from heaven's high portals fell,
Let hymns of praise His triumph tell;
Alleluia!

Lord, by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting Thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to Thee,
Alleluia!

HYMN 4AMAZING GRACE

I'm pressing on the upward way,
New heights I'm gaining everyday;
Still praying as I onward bound
"Lord, plant my feet on higher ground".

Chorus

*Lord, lift me up and let me stand,
By faith on Heaven's table –land;
Where love, and joy, and light abound,
Lord plant my feet on higher ground.*

My heart has no desire to stay
Where doubts arise, and fears dismay;
Though some may dwell where these abound,
My constant aim is higher ground.

Beyond the mist I fain would rise,
To rest beneath unclouded skies,
Above earth's turmoil peace is found
By those who dwell on higher ground.

I long to scale the utmost height,
Though rough the way, and hard the flight,
My song while climbing, shall resound
Lord, lead me on to higher ground.

Lord, lead me up the mountain side,
I dare not climb without my Guide;
And, heaven gained, I'll gaze around,
With grateful heart, from higher ground.
