“With Wings Like An Eagle” by Pastor Yemisi Bamgbose

“But those that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength
They shall mount up wings as eagles
They shall run and not be weary
They shall walk and not faint.” Isaiah 40:31 KJV

To fly means to soar in a high altitude. Birds need wings to fly, as cars need tyres to move. Eagles are not just ordinary birds, but are special as they can fly in very high altitudes. Eagles are not afraid of height, nor afraid of the sun, does not dwell on low levels at all.

Having wings like an eagle is to enable you to soar powerfully without fear or being afraid of anything. Eagles are noted for their broad wings and their powerful soaring flight. An Eagle's emblem represents power. We know that wings are for flying as legs are for walking. The one flying is exerting less energy than the fellow walking. If any fellow is going to cover grounds for God they will require an ability to fly as it will enable them to cover a lot of grounds in less time. The prerequisite for mounting up with wings like an eagle is to wait upon the Lord. When you wait upon someone, they dictate the terms of the waiting and not the one waiting on them. You don't leave their presence until they dismiss you to go or you have received your request. Waiting requires patience, expectation and attentiveness. For example, a waiter waits on the customers the waiter can never be in a hurry or in haste in dealing with the customers he or she is waiting upon. The host or hostess waits on their guest to see that their needs are met. Your waiting requires your total being as you can never be absent minded in your waiting.

It's only when we wait upon the Lord that we can renew our strength, both spiritual, physical and emotional, strength is renewed as we wait upon the Lord. Please note that it is the waiter that needs or expecting something from the one being waited on. Your ability to get something out of your waiting depends on your attitude to the person being waited upon. In waiting, you must have a clear agenda and it must be an agenda that goes with the person you are going to wait upon. The scripture tells us that those who wait on the Lord? Not those who wait on their prime minister, or president, their husband or wife, parents, or their boss. There is nothing wrong in waiting on these people, but what you can get out of your waiting is earthly and temporal. But when you chose to wait on the Lord, there are no limitations to what you will get out of it. The one who is waited upon is the, I AM THAT I AM Exodus 3:14.

1. He is the creator of your life and destiny
2. He is our shield and our exceeding great reward Genesis 15:1
3. He is the Almighty God Genesis 17:1, Genesis 35:11
4. He is The Lord God Genesis 2:4
5. He is The Most High Genesis 14:18
6. He is Eternal God Deuteronomy 33:27
7. He is The Living God Joshua 3:10
8. Lord of hosts Isaiah 1:24
9. He is a Mighty God Jeremiah 32:18

The one being waited upon has absolute power, authority, resources etc.

When you are waiting on Him, the implication is Lord I know you have my solution in Your hands and I will wait until You give me. We are at His mercy because according to Romans 9:15. In order to get the maximum benefit of your waiting, you will have to fulfil His conditions. God controls both the timing and seasons for your blessings. Some of the benefits are to mount up with wings like eagle. Renewal of strength just as eagles required two wings to fly as one wing will not be sufficient in flying. In order for us to engage in flying for Jesus our wings must be complete and strong. Having one wing will make you an abnormal bird that is not better than the ones walking.

There are many benefits attached to being able to fly:

- 1). You have a better view of situation or environment
- 2). You will be able to assess your circumstances better than those on the ground
- 3). You will have an advantage above those who can't fly
- 5). You will be able to fly above mountains and valleys
- 6). You will reach your destination faster than those running or walking
- 7). You will become untouchable to every foul spirits that crawls
- 8). You can cover your journey at lesser time than others
- 9). Winds enhances your speed
- 10). You use less energy

Prayer:

In the mighty name of Jesus, I fly over every mountain, every mountain of sorrow, over mountains of failure, over every mountain of fruitless effort, over every mountain blocking my way to progress, over every sickness and diseases etc and so shall it be in the name of Jesus.

The celebration of the QUEEN'S DIAMOND JUBILEE:

This day was fun filled, with lively music and a large and extremely talented steel band. There were fire fighters dressing up children with their boots and hats, and there was an array of food. There was a children's choir belting out the national anthem proudly, whilst waving flags and banners, and a face painter, turning each child's face into a favourite character. The Mayor of Dartford, Dartford MP and former Mayor of Dartford were also in attendance, and the all-important figures from the area gave speeches. Even though it rained, the festivities still continued, and we had a great day filled with dancing, eating and meeting new people, all in honour to the our Majesty, the Queen.

Father's Day At WWD by Deji Dosumu

Father's Day at Winners' Way Dartford on June 17th 2012

A day we celebrated all fathers in our church and a day we review, re-assess and remind ourselves: Who is a Father? And how a Father is expected to behave.

FATHER is defined as a male parent of any type of offspring. This could be: 1] the biological Father 2] the non biological Father

A father is known as a man who exercises paternal care over other persons. Most fathers are naturally protective, supportive, and responsible and are able to provide a number of significant benefits to themselves, their communities, and their children. Involved fathers offer developmentally specific provisions to their sons and daughters throughout the life cycle and are impacted themselves by their doing so. Active father figures have a key role to play in reducing behaviour problems in boys and psychological problems in young women. For example, children who experience significant father involvement tend to exhibit higher scores on assessments of cognitive development, enhanced social skills and fewer behaviour problems.

Meaning of Father / Fatherhood:

F: Faithful, Fearless, Fervent, Focus,

A: Approachable, Accessible, And Available

T: Teacher, Tutor

H: Honourable, Helper

E: Experience, Expert, Excellent, and Example

R: Respectable, Reasonable, Responsible, Resourceful, Role model

F: A father therefore must be faithful to God and his immediate family. He must be fearless, fervent and remain focused on his God giving assignment.

A: A father must be approachable, not detachable from his children; he must remain accessible and not aloof. He must be available at all times and not occasionally.

T: A father must be a good teacher to his family, he must be able to tutor and mentor his children and family, he must honour God and respect men.

H: A father must be a honourable man, a man of his word, ready to help when necessary; he must not be a dictator who does not get his hands dirty on housework.

E: A father must have enough experience of his divine assignment; he must study the bible in order to become an expert in what he does. He must be a good example of an excellent father.

R: A father must be respectable, reasonable in his expectations, responsible person, very resourceful and a very good role model. He must direct his home affairs by example and he must lead by example.

Responsibilities of a Father:

Ephesians 6:4 says "And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

The Christian father is really an instrument in God's hand. The whole process of instruction and discipline must be that which God commands and which He administers, so that His authority should be brought into constant and immediate contact with the mind, heart, and conscience of children. The human father should never present himself as the ultimate authority to determine truth and duty. It is only by making God the teacher and ruler on whose authority everything is done that the goals of education can best be attained.

A Christian father should take full responsibility for his family as a spiritual father of his home by behaving sensibly and not neglecting his spiritual, physical and social responsibilities. As honours begins at home. He must be a good example of love by loving God and his family.

It is his responsibility to teach his children to love God, to respect the authorities, to provide, protect and direct the affairs of his home. He must be a man of integrity and of honest report. He must live up to his God giving assignment and do it with joy and a sense of accountability to God. Joshua 24:15 says "Choose today who you will serve, but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord

ARE YOU A FATHER?

You and Your Money by Crown Financial Ministries

Ten Ways to Save Money

Most families are looking for ways to save money, and financial consultants by the hundreds feel that they have the money-saving methods for which these families are looking. These include everything from refinancing home mortgages, taking home equity loans, and getting low-interest charge cards to no-down payment investment property, and borrowing against retirement funds.

In evaluating the multiplicity of suggestions and money-saving options, 10 suggestions seem to be advised more than any others: (1) give to God; (2) start small; (3) put money into a company retirement account; (4) monitor ATM withdrawals; (5) pay off charges and loans; (6) pay extra on home mortgage; (7) pay off car loan; (8) open an IRA; (9) evaluate life insurance; and (10) be accountable for your money.

1. Give to God

When we recognize that God owns everything and all blessings come from Him, our role as managers, or stewards, becomes evident. Part of being a good steward is giving back to God a portion of what He has entrusted to us. It is not that God needs our money. Rather, giving serves as an external, material testimony that God owns both the material and spiritual things of our lives and that He is the source of all our supply.

Malachi 3:10 is the first place that really directs the tithe: "Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house." In the Old Testament, the storehouse was a physical place where the Jews would deliver their offerings of grain and animals. Ideally, the church should serve as the storehouse in God's economy today.

Although the tithe is an indicator of our obedience to God's laws, He is looking for the right attitude in our giving. If there were not a willingness to give back what, He has entrusted to us, then even giving above the tithe would be of little use. So, since the tithe's purpose is to be a testimony of God's ownership, each believer should give bountifully and cheerfully.

2. Start small

Most financial experts feel that we need to save at least 5 percent, and preferably 10 percent, of our income and place it into an interest-bearing, liquid savings account. However, don't give up if you're not able to put aside 5 or 10 percent. Establishing a saving habit and saving consistently will eventually add up; even as little as $5 per pay period will accumulate. Once saving becomes a habit, set as your savings goal a maintained savings account of at least three to six months' income. This will prevent borrowing when unexpected expenses arise or in case of a period of illness or unemployment.

3. Put money into a retirement account

If it is available, sign up with your workplace's 401(k), 403(b), or similar retirement plan in which your company will contribute matching funds to the plan in your name. The most common match is 50 cents on the dollar. If this is the case for you, you will get an immediate 50 percent return on your contributions.

4. Monitor ATM withdrawals

Decide how much money you will take out each week or each month and make it last; discipline yourself to stick to your decision. Try to decrease the amount withdrawn every month. If you discover that you have money left over, deposit it into your savings account.

My Experience by Priscilla Bamgbose

Winners' Way Dartford is a Church I love so much. It is a wonderful family Church, full of great people. It is a place where I feel at home, and where people who I am happy God brought my way surround me.

It is also the place that taught me the importance of prayer, and has given me many avenues to learn more about being prayerful and praying as one body in Christ. Through the Word given, I have grown more and more in Christ, as it is a Church where everything spoken on is taken out from and supported by the Bible. This is a place where the Bible is promoted and presented as a whole, and is not washed down in any way. Bible Study, which is held weekly, is an avenue where I have learnt so much about the Bible, with the help of handouts, answered questions, and others speaking from experience, all in relation to the Bible. The topics raised always find a way to address everyday-life with support from the Bible. I find that after most, if not all, Bible study sessions, I am moved to examine and re-examine my life, my ways and my walk, helping me to grow more and more in Christ.

One of the groups I am in is the choir, and this group definitely has a family set-up. Not only do we sing together, we fellowship together, pray together, eat together (after long rehearsals), learn from each other and laugh together.

My experience in WWD has been a great and life-changing one, full of increased growth in Christ, more understanding of the Word of God and prayer, and a good bond with other brethren. Not only has it been a great experience, it will continue to be a great and life-changing experience.

PRAYER BOOSTER ROCKETS A Joyful 'toon by Mike Waters

www.joyfultoons.com © 2008 Michael D. Waters

Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. — PSALM 100:4 NIV

When We Pray?

- ⇒ The book of Philippians 4:6 say be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.
- ⇒ When we pray we receive what we ask for in His name and all things will be possible.
- ⇒ When we pray: ask, and it shall be given us; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto us: for everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.
Matthew 7:7-8
- ⇒ When we pray the peace of the God that passes all understanding through faith will overcome your hearts, Matthew 21:22 says and all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.
- ⇒ Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 1 Chronicles 29:11-13

Hymns For The Month Of July

HYMN 1

Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven;
To His feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like Thee His praise should sing?
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise Him for His grace and favour
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Glorious in His faithfulness.

Father like He tends and spares us,
Well our feeble frame He knows.
In His hands He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes:
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Widely as His mercy flows.

Angels, help us to adore Him!
Ye behold Him face to face:
Sun and moon, bow down before Him,
Dwellers all in time and space,
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise with us the God of grace

HYMN 2

My faith has found a resting place,
Not in device nor creed;
I trust the Ever-living One,
His wounds for me shall plead,

Chorus

*I need no other argument,
I need no other plea,
It is enough that Jesus died,
And that He died for me.*

Enough for me that Jesus saves,
This ends my fear and doubt;
A sinful soul I come to Him,
He'll never cast me out.

My heart is leaning on the word,
The written word of God,
Salvation by my Saviour's Name,
Salvation through His blood.

My great Physician heals the sick,
The lost He came to save;
For me His precious blood He shed,
For me His life He gave.

HYMN 3

All hail the pow'r of Jesus name!
Let angels' prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Crown Him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from His altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small,
Hail Him, who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Ye gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go; spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

O that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet may fall.
Join in the everlasting song,
And crown Him Lord of all.

HYMN 4

Nearer, my God to Thee,
Nearer to Thee,
E'en though it be a cross,
That raiseth me
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, (2ce)
Nearer to Thee!

Though, like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer my God to Thee, (2ce)
Nearer to Thee!

There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou send'st to me
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee, (2ce)
Nearer to Thee!

Then with my waking thoughts,
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee, (2ce)
Nearer to Thee!

Or if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upwards I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, (2ce)
Nearer to Thee!

HYMN 5

Will your anchor hold in the storms of life,
When the clouds unfold their wings of strife?
When the strong tides lift and the cables strain,
Will your anchor drift, or firm remain?

Chorus:

*We have an anchor that keeps the soul
Steadfast and sure while the billows roll,
Fastened to the Rock which cannot move,
Grounded firm and deep in the saviour's love.*

It is safely moored, 'twill the storm withstand
For 'tis well secure by the saviour's hand
And the cables, passed from His heart to mine
Can defy that blast, through strength divine.

It will firmly hold in the straits of fear,
When the breakers have told the reef is near;
Though the tempest rage and the wild winds blow,
Not an angry wave shall our bark o'erflow.

It will surely hold in the floods of death
When the waters cold chill your latest breath,
On the rising tide you can never fail
While our hopes abide within the veil!

When our eyes behold through the gathering night
The city of gold, our harbour bright,
We shall anchor fast by the heavenly shore,
With the storms all past for evermore.
