"Glorious Children" by Pastor Yemisi Bamgbose

Isaiah 8:18 says, "Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion."

The Bible says behold I and the children God has given me are for signs and wonders.

So, what is a sign? It is a public display of something and can further be described as a perceptible indication of something not immediately apparent. What does the word wonder mean? It means to marvel, to be in admiration, and it can also be described as amazement.

Glorious generations are to be a public display of God's wonders of creation.

They are generations that will stand shoulder and head above their equals in godly character, by setting pace for others to follow. They are the public example of uprightness in their chosen field, and are the outstanding children that make God proud and bring honour to their earthly parents.

Each individual coming into this world is created to be great, but unfortunately not all attain greatness due to many factors, such as parental input, environment factors, societal expectations and the invasion of hell in ensuring that those meant to be leading others to godliness turn out to become the very ones creating a big mess of themselves and their family names. But with the right input from parents coupled with the right environment, most children will turn out well.

Psalm 144:12 says, "That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace."

The scripture above describes how every child should turn out in life. They are to grow up like a tender plant, and are to be like a pillar polished in the palace. They are for the public display of God's favour and glory. They are the blessed generations that should show forth God's handy work of perfection.

Daniel 1:4 says they are "Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans."

Glorious generations are those without blemish or stain, or any form of abuse. They are children gifted in artistic design and skilful in wisdom; they have knowledge and seek after God. They have a clear display of great attribute in science, and they have what it takes to stand before kings and not mere men.

Proverb 18:16 says, "A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men."

In the Bible, there are good examples of children such as Bezaleel and Aholiab, who were filled with the Spirit of God in all manner of workmanship to design artistic work.

It is true that special skills come from God, but parents must help their children to channel it aright in order for them to remain a blessing and not a curse to their parents and to the world around them.

Exodus 31:1-6 says, "And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur,

of the tribe of Judah: And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship. And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee."

From the above passage, it is clear that being great in life is the plan of God and the support of both the parent and child with the right and conducive environment. May our children remain part of the great and glorious generations in Jesus name. As we do our best in teaching them the Word of God by our actions and deeds, they will turn out well in Jesus name.

Deuteronomy 6:6-9 says, "And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates."

To make success of our first and primary ministry as parents, we must teach our children the laws of God. We must show them love by loving God, loving them and others, discipline them when necessary in correct proportion to the offence committed, invest in their future, and provide them with a sound and excellent education. Above all, we must be a person of prayer, godly character and humility, and this will rub off on them. We must let them learn from other people's errors and allow the Word of God to shape and mould them, and they will turn out well and glorious in Jesus name. The Lord will make our children solutions to the world's problems in Jesus name.

I Rise! By Omolara Bamgbose aka Arewa O

I am that voice calling out from a large crowd, face that blends with all around, mind and heart screaming out for help but it seems like the louder I scream the less anyone hears or listens, so much anger is building up inside, but why?

There is a song within that is burning to come out, the desire to be heard and seen but the more I desire the less it comes... I just want to run away, be free to fly high like the eagle to fly very high above all thorns, darkness, pain, confusion and hurt. I'm screaming out for help, but no one seems to come to my rescue. As tears run down my face my mind seems to ask and think why me? Why did I come into this world as me and if I had come as someone else will it be different or will it still be the same? But most importantly, will I feel this much pain and hurt? That's the question that lingers in my mind, waiting, thinking, breathing, reminding me to exhale but am I exhaling or just inhaling?

Like a lion waiting low in the dry, hot grass on its prey, I am waiting for when my time will come to leap out with my legs and hands in the air, leaping for joy. As I arise with Christ, I know I'm rising out of shame, disgrace, hurt, pain, failure, struggling, never being good enough and confusion. Arising and shining like the big star that shines brightly high up in the sky, I rise.

Romans 6, being dead with Christ means rising up to His fulfilment, grace, mercy and life, but at times we have been dead but haven't risen back with Him. This is the time and season to rise, which means to break away from all forms of hurt, pain, distraction, and all we keep inside that has never been mention to a soul. Remember Christ has already bore the pain for us and He knows all as He sees our heart. We have to step into His joy and happiness; Nehemiah 8:10b, "...for the joy of the LORD is your strength." That joy is real and is waiting for us, all we have to do is tap into it.

Arise shine and give God the glory; today is the day of your joy as you don't know where you would have been if it was not for Him. Praise Him! Lift Him high, for He is Jehovah!

As a man from an African descendant, I remember my parents telling me that "the only way to success is through hard work". For many years, this was my driving force towards achieving success. Working hard is undoubtedly a tool in achieving success. But really, is working hard the only way to success?

I have come across different types of people both successful and unsuccessful people. In the quest for success, I have read many books that teach success and I have spoken to successful people.

Some people say working hard paid off while some say working smart is the major driver for success. The question now is: WORKING HARD or WORKING SMART? There is a fine line between working hard and working smart...

Working Hard: "characterized by care and perseverance in carrying out tasks or working tirelessly" - [the free dictionary]

Hard work certainly will propel success...that's true to an extent - if you put effort and focus into something, you're going to achieve more than if you go at it in a half-hearted way. But it's all too easy to get sucked into working long hours, ticking tasks off a list, without being all that effective or successful.

Those that work hard usually evaluate success based on inputs such as the number of hours they work and the number of tasks they accomplish in a day or in a week and ultimately seek a large reward.

Typically hard work means something like 60 or 70 hours a week, working at home in the evenings and weekends, and continuously juggling multiple projects in a frantic attempt to get them all done. In as much this can result into success, it can also go without being recognised and without achieving success. Working too hard can have a really negative effect on your quality of life, too. Long hours and the pressure to keep doing more can lead to stress, burn out, depression, or just that miserable feeling of is this all there is to life?

Working Smart: "Characterized by sharp quick thought; bright - this mean working intelligently" Capable of making adjustments that resemble human decisions, especially in response to changing circumstances - [the free dictionary]

Those that work smart usually evaluates success based on the amount of discretionary time they have to do whatever it is they want to do.

Smart workers don't focus on inputs they focus on prioritizing in order to achieve the most valuable outputs in the most efficient ways. Smart workers usually have a much better work-life balance, are entrepreneurs, are able to identify their strengths and weaknesses, and manage time effectively.

For example, a smart worker will realize that they are more productive during a certain time of day and will batch their tasks based on difficulty to match with when they are most productive.

Tips for working smart:

- Understand your strengths and weaknesses and try to take on projects that match your strengths while delegating tasks that fall within your weaknesses.
- Don't focus on completing a lot of tasks, focus on completing the most important tasks that will have the greatest impact on whatever you are doing.
- Education is your best friend. Working smart is all about understanding the big picture. You need to constantly learn and evolve your skill set.
- Leverage your resources, your network, and your connections. You have to understand what and who you have around determine your success to an extent.
- Build for the future while being able to sustain tomorrow.
- Know when to cut your losses. We all make mistakes, learn when you have made a mistake and move on.
- Look for the shortcuts. This doesn't mean cut corners in a way that makes your work less valuable or complete. It means, understanding the regular process that is required to accomplish something and then understanding if that whole process is necessary. Is there a way to complete the same task with the same quality of work but in a more efficient way?
- Work hard at working smart!

"In this day and age it's not about the experience you have but your ability to learn and your ability to apply what you learn that makes you most valuable" (Gil Yehuda and Rick Fleischman)"

WORKING HARD or WORKING SMART?

There isn't better or worse way to get things done its simply based on preference.

The Bible says in Proverbs 18:15, "The mind of the intelligent gains knowledge and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge."

Managing Money- Budget Basis by About.com

For most people, the word "budget" conjures up thoughts of penny-pinching and the unpleasant task of crunching numbers. This couldn't be further from the truth. A budget is at the cornerstone of a solid financial foundation, regardless of your situation, and it isn't that hard to do.

What is a Budget?

A budget is nothing more than a breakdown and plan of how much money you have coming in and where it goes. Could you imagine a business becoming successful if it didn't keep track of its income and expenses? The same holds true when it comes to your personal finances. If you don't know how much money you have coming in and where it goes, your road to financial success will be a difficult one.

The biggest fear that most people have when creating a budget is that they will need to suddenly cut back on all of the fun spending -- things like the occasional coffee or dinner out, movie night, or even the trip to grandma's for the holidays. While you may find that you do need to cut some spending after putting together a budget, without actually sitting down and creating one, it is impossible to know what expenses need to be cut, if any.

Tracking Income

The first step in creating a budget is to determine how much income you have. This is quite easy and typically only requires you to take a look at your pay stub. Of course, if you're married, be sure to include your spouse's income as well. In addition to your regular pay, you'll want to also include any other sources of income you may have, such as dividends, interest, a side business, and so on.

Tracking Expenses

Now that you know how much income you have coming in, it's time to take a look at your monthly expenses. Start with the regular and fixed payments you have, such as your mortgage or rent, car payments, insurance, debt and taxes. For most people, these are going to be relatively fixed, meaning you can't easily change the amount that is due each month.

After you've listed your fixed monthly expenses, it is time to dig deeper to find out where the rest of your money goes. Take out your checkbook or pull your latest bank statement to help you with this step. Jot down how much you spend on things like utilities, groceries, entertainment, subscriptions, and so on.

The Bottom Line

You should now have all of the information needed to help you create your budget. So, go ahead and total up your monthly income and all of your monthly expenses. Subtract your expense total from your income total and you'll have either a positive or negative number. If you have a positive number, congratulations, you are spending less than you earn. Don't worry if you have a negative number. The whole reason for creating a budget is to identify deficiencies and find out how to address them.

Now that you can visually see how much you fall short, you can adjust your spending or saving in certain areas to improve the situation. Oftentimes you'll realize that by just making a few small adjustments to your spending habits, you can significantly improve your situation. Maybe this means cutting back on one of your magazine subscriptions, eating out one time less a month, or even just hitting the matinee instead of the prime time movie.

Typically, just saving a few dollars here and there can be enough to not only make sure you spend less than you earn, but also apply a few extra dollars to things like high-interest credit card debt or your retirement savings.

"Glorious Generation"

Isaiah 8:18

THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH A Joyful 'toon by Mike Waters

© 2009 Michael D. Waters
www.joyfultoons.com

I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

– PHILIPPIANS 4:13 NIV

Glorious Generation!

- ⇒ The Lord said we are for signs and wonders, Isaiah 8:18, “Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.”
- ⇒ I Peter 2:9, “But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.”
- ⇒ What is the goal? One needs to know what it is before one can become glorious and one of it is to be set aside from the world, just as Daniel did in Daniel 6:2.
- ⇒ To be glorious is to be outstanding and unstoppable in everything.
- ⇒ God Himself is glorious, beautiful, excellent, majestic, superb and as His children and chosen generation we have to be just like him, which means we have to be glorious as He is.
- ⇒ We must be glorious in our generation, i.e. in school, in work, in business and everywhere we find ourselves, as we are peculiar, royalty so that we can bring glory to Him.

Prayer Points for The Month of October

Day 1

Father, make all things new for me today; new health, new strength, new joy, new successes, new anointing and a closer walk with You in Jesus name.

Day 2

Father, in this new church year let me keep climbing higher every day in Jesus name.

Day 3

Father, don't let me ever return to the valley and don't let me ever go down. You have moved me out of the valley and I am on my way to the top, don't let me ever go down again in Jesus name.

Day 4

Father, thank You for everything You have done for me in the past and for what You will do for me in the future in Jesus name.

Day 5

Father, because glory is the opposite of shame, eradicate shame in my life in Jesus name.

Day 6

Father, let my life declare your glory in everything I do in Jesus name.

Day 7

Father, please make me abundantly fruitful in every facets of my life; physically, maritally, spiritually and materially in Jesus name.

Day 8

Father, please use me and my children mightily for your glory in Jesus name.

Day 9

Father, please make me and every member of my family victorious in every battle of life in Jesus name.

Day 10

Father, please don't let my family and I know failure again in Jesus name.

Day 11

Father, please pour fresh anointing on me and all my children including those yet to be born in Jesus name.

Day 12

Father, let my entire future be beautiful and glorious in Jesus name.

Day 13

Father, answer all who are waiting upon You for fruitfulness this month of October In Jesus name.

Day 14

Father, let me be fruitful in all aspects of my life; physically, mentally, materially, spiritually and maritally in Jesus name.

Day 15

Father, pour upon me and every member of my family Your fresh anointing to do exploits in Jesus name.

Day 16

Father, make my future glorious and put a new song in my mouth this month in Jesus name.

Day 17

Father, Make me a glorious generation and give me a testimony that will draw men to You in Jesus name.

Day 18

Father deliver me from the love of this world in Jesus name.

Day 19

Father fill my heart with your love and transform my life to Your glory in Jesus name.

Day 20

Father, restore the power of holiness into Your Church in Jesus name.

Day 21

O Lord, help me to overcome every besetting sin and every trap of the enemy in Jesus name.

Day 22

O Lord, let the counsel of the wicked against me backfire against the enemy in Jesus name.

Day 23

Lord Jesus, speak life to my womb, make me to be fruitful in life and let me break forth into a great harvest. Open the womb of my wealth so that poverty will become a stranger to me and my family in Jesus name.

Day 24

Father, let all my past seeds and sacrificial giving begin to bring a great harvest and increase into my life, my family and business. Give me a testimony regarding my giving in Jesus name.

Day 25

My Father and my God, let the remaining months of 2012 be full of supernatural manifestations in my life, my family and my entire household in Jesus name.

Day 26

My Father, let every closed door to my breakthrough be forced open in Jesus name.

Day 27

King of Glory, let all be well with me, my household, Your Church and my nation in Jesus name.

Day 28

Father in the name of Jesus, let this month be my own month of wonder; remember me in Your favour and in Your mercy in Jesus name.

Day 29

Glorious Father, overshadow me and all my loved ones with Your glory; let Your presence in our lives destroy all the evil plans of the enemy in Jesus name.

Day 30

Father, today I receive my good reward for everywhere I have worked in the past and was not celebrated and for everyone I have laboured for and have ended up despising me in Jesus name.

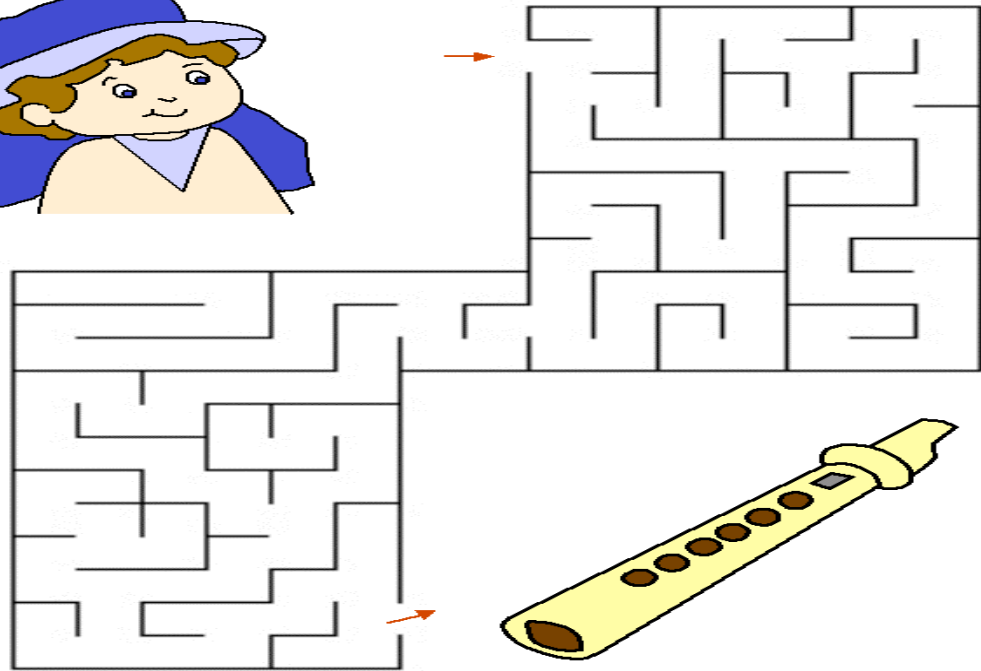

Day 31

Heavenly Father, let me receive Your divine visitation that will silence all my mockers forever in Jesus name.

Hymns For The Month Of October

HYMN 1

GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS

Great is Thy faithfulness, O God my Father!
There is no shadow of turning with Thee:
Thou changest not, Thy compassion,
they fail not,
As Thou has been Thou forever wilt be.

Chorus

*"Great is Thy faithfulness!"
Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see.
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided
'Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!*

Summer and winter, and spring time and harvest
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide!
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

HYMN 2

JESUS LOVES THE LITTLE CHILDREN

Jesus loves the little children
All the children of the world;
Red and yellow, black and white,
They are precious in his sight;
Jesus loves the little children of the world.

Jesus died for all the children,
All the children of the world;
Red and yellow, black and white,
They are precious in his sight;
Jesus died the little children of the world.

Jesus rose for all the children,
All the children of the world;
Red and yellow, black and white,
They are precious in his sight;
Jesus arose the little children of the world.

Jesus wants the little children,
To be careful what they do;
Honour father, mother dear
Keep their hearts so full of cheer;
Then he'll take them home to glory by and by.

HYMN 3GOD MAKE MY LIFE A LITTLE LIGHT

God make my life a little light
 Within the world to glow;
 A little flame that burneth bright,
 Wherever I may go.

God make my life a little flower
 That giveth joy to all,
 Content to bloom in native bower,
 Although the place be small.

God make my life a little song
 That comforteth the sad
 That helpeth others to be strong,
 And makes the singer glad.

God make my life a little staff
 Whereon the weak may rest,
 That so what health and strength I have
 May serve my neighbours best.

God make my life a little hymn
 Of tenderness and praise,
 Of faith, that never waxeth dim,
 In all His wondrous ways.

HYMN 4JESUS LOVES ME!

Jesus loves me! This I know,
 For the Bible tells me so.
 Little ones to Him belong;
 They are weak, but He is strong.

Chorus

Yes, Jesus loves me!
 Yes, Jesus loves me!
 Yes, Jesus loves me!
 The Bible tells me so.

Jesus loves me still today,
 Walking with me on my way,
 Wanting as a friend to give
 Light and love to all who live.

Jesus loves me! He who died
 Heaven's gate to open wide;
 He will wash away my sin,
 Let His little child come in.

Jesus loves me! Loves me still
 Though I'm very weak and ill;
 From his shining throne on high
 Comes to watch me where I lie.

Jesus loves me! He will stay
 Close beside me all the way;
 If I love him, when I die
 He will take me home on high.

HYMN 5LORD I WANT TO BE A CHRISTIAN IN MY HEART

Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart, in my heart,
 Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart, in my heart.
 In my heart, in my heart,
 Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart, in my heart.

Lord, I want to be more loving in my heart, in my heart,
 Lord, I want to be more loving in my heart, in my heart.
 In my heart, in my heart,
 Lord, I want to be more loving in my heart, in my heart.

Lord, I want to be more holy in my heart, in my heart,
 Lord, I want to be more holy in my heart, in my heart.
 In my heart, in my heart,
 Lord, I want to be more holy in my heart, in my heart.

Lord, I want to be like Jesus in my heart, in my heart,
 Lord, I want to be like Jesus in my heart, in my heart.
 In my heart, in my heart,
 Lord, I want to be like Jesus in my heart, in my heart.
